Denia is the capital city of the Marina Alta region of the Costa Blanca. To the north of the town you have the famous white sandy beaches of the las marinas area, which is lined with a bend of traditional beachfront properties and larger apartment complexes. In the south of the town you have Las Rotas, an area popular for those seeking luxury beach front villas. The town has two beautiful ports, and from here you can take the ferry to the Balearic islands including Ibiza and Majorca. Denia is also considered the culinary centre for the area and has a host of top quality restaurants as well as cool bars and a vibrant nightlife.
