One of the bedrooms has air conditioning, and both the bedrooms and bathrooms have mosquito nets.

The house is equipped with a heat pump and solar water heater, and the swimming pool (recently renovated and illuminated) becomes the heart of the garden. A relaxation area with comfortable sun loungers, an outdoor shower, and a covered terrace with a table and chairs for enjoying al fresco meals. In addition, there is a picnic area with benches, a barbecue, and a private storage room in a garden shed. The low-maintenance garden combines succulents with an orange tree that yields delicious fruit every year. Access is easy, without any large external staircases, and there is parking available within the property.

With a valid rental license, this villa not only offers a charming Mediterranean retreat but also an excellent investment opportunity thanks to its solid profitability in holiday rentals. A sunny gem where the sea, tranquility, and comfort are in perfect harmony.
